MA in Srimad Bhagavad Gita

Duration: 2 Years (4 Semesters)

Credits: 100 credits

Eligibility: Bachelor's degree in any discipline

Introduction: The Bhagavad Gita is one of the great Indian works in terms of literature and philosophy. As an ancient Indian scripture, it provides many ways to explore contemporary management concepts, conflicts, dilemmas, and trade-offs in business. Lessons from Bhagavad Gita suggest powerful ways to promote management practices that are consistent with business model and yet ethical. This course is focused on early reflections on those learnings. The course will also enable participants to develop competence to face challenging times in their career with aplomb and confidence. The Programme aims to sensitize them on ways to develop themselves into effective leaders in the corporate world.

Course objectives:

1. The course is designed with the following objectives and learning outcomes:
2. Gain insights into ethics and values to promote meaningful impact in organizations.
3. Develop insights into how to make effective choices.
4. Strengthen concepts of contemporary management and value-based leadership.
5. Develop an understanding about leadership excellence.
6. Acquire insights about how to lead a life with excellence and happiness.

Programme Contents:

1. The key areas to be covered during the Programme include:
2. Values and ethics – Lessons from Bhagavad Gita
3. Understanding behavioural orientation
4. Understanding role, role conflict and outcome
5. Essence of leadership excellence
6. Managing self – A journey towards excellence and happiness
